

Exploring Australia's Democracy at Old Parliament House – Teacher's Guide

Use these activity sheets alongside the Exploring Australia's Democracy at Old Parliament House videos created with the incredible team at ABC Education.

Making Change, Taking Action

Use this resource to inspire students to create positive change in your community.

As a class, watch Do you need to be the prime minister to create change?

Support students as they work in groups to brainstorm how they can help their community. Print the activity sheet at A3 for greater collaboration.

Invite students to share their ideas in a class discussion. Perhaps you can help them turn their ideas into a reality.

Making Change: Taking Action

You don't need to be the Prime Minister to create change in Australia.

There are lots of ways to make your voice heard in our democracy. Think about some of the issues in your local community and consider how you can make positive change.

Let's brainstorm!

What does your community need more of?

What needs to be fixed or repaired in your community?

What is something new that could benefit your community?

Making Change: Taking Action

How will you spread awareness for your idea?

It's time to come up with a plan of action!

Have a go at picking one of your ideas for change and consider what small steps you can take to make this change happen.

Who do you need to speak with
to make this change happen?

What personal actions can you take to help?
